"Inspiring others to amplify their performance through Communication, Influence and Leadership"

"Individuals who find purpose and meaning in what they do are engaged. Engaged individuals are central to the success of high performing teams."

The most valuable asset of any organisation is their people.

Developing your people and their personal leadership skills leads to increased productivity, better teamwork and greater job satisfaction.

People with enhanced communication and interpersonal skills will be identified as highly valued team members and sought-after leaders.

Michael offers clients his unique understanding of human behaviour and performance learned over 30 years of working with people. His knowledge and experience will pinpoint the self-management skills your team need to be effective in today's world.

Michael has an innate ability to connect with his audience. His storytelling, vibrance and highly infectious energy will engage your team and add value to your event.

Book Michael for your next event:

- Keynote Speaker - virtual or live, choose from one of Michael's signature keynotes or ask him to customise a presentation for your audience
- Event MC or Host - engage Michael to host your whole event
- Workshop Facilitator - to deliver team development sessions

POPULAR KEYNOTES

Super Human Focus – Overcoming distractions to supercharge your performance

Are your people being effective or simply keeping busy? The biggest enemy to staff productivity today is distraction. Michael will help your people understand their personal productivity and provide them with effective tools to improve their efficiency, overcome distractions and optimise their performance.

Enhancing Your Interactions - Understanding others to create powerful connections

Do you sometimes struggle to connect with others? Michael will identify your communication style and pinpoint where you have been going wrong in your interactions. He will teach you the essential skills to build stronger connections that empower you to lead, motivate and influence others more effectively.

Generational Leadership - How to lead and connect with multi-generational teams

With more generations in the workplace today than ever before, leaders are being confronted with team members who have different kinds of needs and expectations. Leaders must learn to understand these differences in order to successfully lead multi-generational teams.

Living A Fulfilled Life - Finding your path to a life with more meaning

Michael shares his thoughts and ideas about success and happiness. Many people live with a belief that success is measured by their job title and the possessions they accumulate. Michael talks about creating a life by design, where fulfilment comes from living a life with purpose, meaning and gratitude.

TESTIMONIALS

We recently invited Michael to be a keynote speaker at our virtual employee conference. Michael is exceptional at delivering an engaging message. He was able to relate to all levels within the organisation and kept the employees intrigued during the presentation.

Jessica Eberbach - VP of People & Culture Tricap Residential

Michael was a fantastic facilitator and MC for our company conference and awards night. His ability to 'read the room' and inject the right amount of humour at the right time was perfect.

Evan Camilleri - Chief Executive Officer at Repairhub

We recently engaged Michael as a keynote speaker to talk to our team on productivity, time management and managing workplace stress. Michael's content was on-point and his ideas thought provoking. Michael's approach to engaging with his audience was a clear point of difference.
